

PRIMARY PE TEACHER

BISS is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. Any offer of employment will be subject to relevant police checks, the receipt of satisfactory references and the production of relevant original ID documentation and examination certificates. The successful candidate must also be willing to undergo child protection training appropriate to the post.

Employer: British International School of Stockholm

Location: Sweden

Contract type: Full time

Contract term: Fixed term until June 2023

Job starts: As soon as possible

Due to staff parental leave, The British International School of Stockholm wishes to employ a qualified, enthusiastic and dedicated PE teacher who is able to teach across the primary age range at our Altorp campus.

The successful candidates will have:

- Proven experience of teaching PE from Nursery to Year 4 (essential)
- The ability to share outstanding practice and develop other colleagues
- A creative and enthusiastic approach both in and out of the classroom
- Be skilled in using digital tools for teaching (example: Google Workspace for Education, Touch Screen boards and Chromebooks)
- Be a reflective practitioner and embrace opportunities for continuous professional learning

In addition, applicants should:

- Be a fully qualified teacher (UK BEd or PGCE with relevant degree, or hold the equivalent recognised teaching qualifications from other countries)
- Have a minimum two years' relevant teaching experience
- Be a fluent English speaker
- Be eligible to live and work in Sweden (have EU citizenship)

The School

Meeting internationally recognised standards of excellence, the British International School of Stockholm is the only accredited member of COBIS (the Council of British International Schools) in Sweden and received an excellent BSO inspection report. The school is situated across two campuses in Djursholm, a beautiful suburb of Stockholm. It caters for the Nursery to Year 13 age range and enjoys an excellent reputation for both its academic progress and achievement, and its pastoral care.

BISS is a vibrant and highly successful school of over 600 children from 45 different nationalities.

In Primary, the school uses objectives from the IPC as a starting point and this is developed further for specialist subjects such as PE.

We offer you:

A wonderful country and school in which to work
Excellent professional development opportunities
Opportunities to work cross phase in our all through school
Supportive and aspirational parents
Extremely friendly and vibrant staff and students from a rich range of backgrounds

If you are internationally-minded, and have the desire to help shape the exciting future of our school, we would love to hear from you.

To apply:

All applications should be submitted online via TES - <https://www.tes.com/> taking particular care to fully complete all sections as instructed. Please include a letter of application in the Supporting Statement section. Please note that a CV will not be accepted in place of the online application form, but can be submitted as an attachment.

Closing date:

The deadline for applications will be 17.00 (Swedish time) Sunday 18th September. However, BISS reserves the right to interview and appoint a suitable candidate before this date.
