

The British International School of Stockholm (BISS)

The British International School of Stockholm (BISS) is seeking a passionate Lärare i Svenska/Svenska som andraspråk (SVA) to join our dedicated team. The role primarily involves teaching our primary school students (grundskolenivå) but also includes teaching younger students of preschool age (förskoleålder).

This is an opportunity to bring your expertise from the Swedish education system to a not-for-profit international school that has high expectations for learning and values academic excellence, personal growth, and well-being.

About Us

BISS offers a high-quality international education within a welcoming and global community. Combining the best of English and international curricula, we inspire students from over 40 nationalities to be their best by fostering creativity, encouraging respect, and building resilience.

You will join a dedicated Swedish-speaking team that teaches students from ages 3 to 18 across two campuses. The role focuses on working with younger students (ages 3–11), based at our Altorp campus.

At BISS, English is the primary language of instruction outside of Swedish lessons, and a professional level of English is required. Experience working or studying abroad is an added advantage.

Qualifications:

We are looking for candidates who:

- Du är legitimerad lärare med behörighet i svenska och svenska som andraspråk för åk F-6.
- Hold a university degree.
- Have current experience teaching åk F-3 within the Swedish school system.
- Are experienced in differentiated instruction.
- Can organise and manage your work efficiently.
- Motivate and engage students.
- Communicate effectively with colleagues and resolve conflicts constructively.
- Value collegial learning as key to developing new knowledge.
- Take responsibility for professional growth, consistently focused on achieving goals and outcomes.

Key Responsibilities:

- Promote the school's vision and values.
- Show a commitment to diversity, inclusion, and equity.
- Plan, develop, and assess high-quality lessons.
- Collaborate to enhance and develop our Swedish programmes.
- Hold students accountable to maintain an effective learning environment.
- Stay up to date with the latest educational research.

Contract:

- Permanent full-time (with a six-month probationary period).
- Start date: Immediate start (or as soon as the right candidate is available).
- Closing date: 12th September 2025. Interviews will be conducted on a rolling basis, so early applications are encouraged.

Application Procedure

To apply, visit www.bisstockholm.se/careers and complete an application form.
